

Juan Gomez

Juan Gomez studied painting at the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts earning a four year certificate in painting. While at the Academy, Juan was a recipient of the William Emlen Cresson Travel award. He is a nationally recognized artist and a main fixture in the Philadelphia art community.

Juan Gomez has exhibited his work in many prestigious museums and galleries throughout the United States; such as, the Deshong Museum, The Lapelle Galleries, The Rosenfeld Galleries. His work is included in the collections of the Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Art and many more public and private collections throughout the United States and Europe.

Juan has contributed to the following Healing Art Works, Inc. Projects:

Project 2011/2012 - The Chester County Hospital

Donated to Project 2011/2012

The Chester County Hospital

