

G Porr

The artist statement: "I am so overtaken by water sky scenes that I surrender myself to the experience and barely remember painting. It...the colors of sunset and breezes off the water create a fullfilling piece of work. Painting is just an extension, a form of communicating the feeling of empowerment..." G Por finds inspiration from the forms and shapes of the natural world around her. Working loosely in acrylic, her work speaks to spontaneity and immediacy. Many of the pieces are available as notecards and prints. Visit www.MusesAndFriends to see more of the artist's work.
